INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

Human rights are standards that allow all people to live with dignity, freedom, equality, justice, and peace. It is guaranteed to everyone without distinction of any kind, such as race, color, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth, or other status. Human rights are essential to the full development of individuals and communities.

About the program:

In order to understand and to create an awareness of human rights among students, a video presentation competition is organised by IQAC. The students can choose any one of the human rights and present it in a recorded video of minimum 3-4 minutes and the best one will be awarded.

“Education is education. We should learn everything and then choose which path to follow. Education is neither Eastern nor Western, it is human.”-MALALA YOUSAFZAI
