Voluntary blood donation is a humanitarian and noble endeavor that saves hundreds of lives every day. The blood donation among youth is increasing day by day especially in college students as they engage themselves in donating blood and thereby save the human lives to a great extent; however, it is difficult to identify the factors or factors that motivates an influence the willingness of students. It is of utmost importance to identify and boost the factor or factors that contributed the students to participate in the blood donation practices. Keeping in view, Sree Narayana college, Chathannur & former students association joined organized a blood donation awareness program to whole students on 8/12/2018 at 10 am to 12pm. The seminar was inaugurated by the principal Dr. Pradeep T and Welcome speech was delivered by Smt. Biji B (Assistant Professor, Dept. of Commerce). The resource person of the seminar was Sri. Sam Chandran C (Senior Technical Leader, HCL Technologies Ltd. Chennai & Alumni of our college). The resource person induces students to donate blood. The resource person addressed that blood as a precious therapeutic modality which originates from human source and quoted that it can't be manufactured in factories. It is considered as a satisfactory aid for those who donates blood and those who receives blood among each other. The resource person shared the valuable experience after the successful presentation. The students informed that they voluntarily donate blood in every three months. A total of 134 students participated in the program and vote of thanks was delivered by Smt.
