ERP DOCUMENT

Sree Narayana College Chathannur being an affiliated college of University of Kerala, college works in tandem with the University. Its major e-Governance happens through effective utilisation of the Government's University's platforms. The college uses the student life cycle management system of Examination wing of the University of Kerala. College administration processes are computerized with the help of EMBASE Pro Suit, options for planning, development, and library management are facilitated in the software and a few more options are underway. Meanwhile, emails, email groups, online meeting rooms and WhatsApp groups are being effectively used for communication with and among the stakeholders. In order to ensure security and facilitate easy administration, we have installed CCTV Cameras in various places across the college premises. The salary of staffs and their service related administration processes are completely on the digital platform named SPARK maintained by Finance Department of Government of Kerala. The DCE scholarship portal, e-Grantz scholarship portals and various other scholarship and fellowship portals of Govt of Kerala are extended to all students. The college has a partially automated library using the EMBASE software since 2022. Library offers access to INFLIBNET, N-LIST programme, which is a vast repository of online journals and e-books. The library provides access to 31 Lakh e-books and 6000 thousand e-journals through INFLIBNET N- LIST consortium. Sree Narayana college Chathannur is also a member of National Digital library of India , a project under Ministry of Human Resource Development, India. It holds more than 60 types of learning resources and 10 Million items have been authored by 3 Lakh authors. ILMS is a computer-based system which is used for classification using DDC scheme, data imputing, subject analysis, selection of class number, assigning book number, preparing call number, data book creation, and spine label preparation Bar code technology is used for identifying the book and the subscriber
